Advocate for Behavioral Health Services

Family members, legislators, policymakers and providers will gather in Annapolis on Thursday, February 27. Join us!

MCF's 20th Annual Family Day in Annapolis is an opportunity for us to advocate for children and youth with behavioral health needs, and all those with substance use or gambling issues.

Don't miss this opportunity to:

- Express your concerns about the need for more behavioral health services
- Learn about important legislation in Maryland's House and Senate
- Meet with legislators and/or their staff

When: Thursday, February 27
9:30 am - 1:00 pm

Where: First Floor, Lowe House
Office Building
6 Bladen Street
Annapolis, MD 21401

Free shuttle buses will depart from various locations around the state. Parking is also available.

Please note: Participants will walk both within the legislator office buildings and outdoors to attend legislator meetings and are encouraged to participate in a several-block march that follows.

"You're the unsung heroes advocating for families...it's really important for my colleagues to hear from all of you."
