Online Support Group for Families Impacted by Substance Use

Support for Families Impacted by Substance Use

This group is open to anyone who has a loved one affected by substance use who is currently in treatment or in active use.

We provide a safe place to share experiences and offer support and understanding. Together we can put a loved one's substance use into perspective and set healthy boundaries.

We will also discuss any barriers related to the COVID-19.

You are not alone.

This program is open to all families in Maryland who are impacted by substance use.
