

Our Healing Hearts Family Peer Grief Support Now Online

For parents who have lost a child to substance overdose

Child loss to substance overdose is a unique and isolating situation.

We are a grief support group, now meeting online, for any parent coping with this heartbreaking experience.

Because we have been in your situation, we can provide a nonjudgmental, safe space to share experiences and offer peer support and understanding.

Join us to share, learn, listen, and be heard.

You are not alone.

This program is for families that reside in Carroll County only.
