

18th Annual Family Day in Annapolis

Thursday, February 22, 2018

Bringing together legislators, families, youth, policymakers and providers

Join us on Thursday, February 22 for Family Day in Annapolis to advocate for children and youth with behavioral health needs, including mental health and substance use challenges.

Don't miss this opportunity to:

- Learn about relevant legislation and committee work in Maryland's House and Senate
- Meet with legislators and/or their staff
- Make your voice heard about the need for more services for mental health and substance use treatment for young people

When: Thursday, February 22
8:45 am - 1:00 pm

Where: Governor Calvert House
58 State Circle
Annapolis, MD 21401

Cost: Free

Parking is available. Shuttle buses will depart from various locations around the state.

"Your voice is so, so, so important. We need to hear your concerns on the state level. "

— Dr. Al Zachik, Director of the Child and Adolescent Division of the Maryland Behavioral Health Administration, at Family Day 2017

"We know how important it is for you to be here, you speak with authenticity."

— Delegate Dana Stein at Family Day 2016
